[redacted] which letter is dated May 18, 1940.

Please be advised that on June 4, 1940 Special Agent [redacted] contacted [redacted] relative to the information set out in his letter to the Bureau. He reiterated the information set out therein, and in addition advised that [redacted] had passed out German pamphlets and had been known to display the Swastika flag at her home. He could furnish no further information relative to [redacted]

[redacted] stated that one [redacted] who resides at [redacted] gave him the information relative to [redacted] b7C b7D
[redacted] said that [redacted] is an artist and is alleged to have some of the pamphlets given out by [redacted]

[redacted] advised that one [redacted] an Italian at [redacted] exhibits photographs and pictures. He stated that this individual is very pro-German and pro-Italian and believed should be investigated. He could furnish no definite information relative to [redacted]

[redacted] further advised that a [redacted] is pro-German and believed to be an Austrian Jew. He stated further that he believed that this individual was suspected of being an agent in the world war. He could likewise furnish no further information as to this individual's activities.

Relative to GEORGE MURPHY, [redacted] stated that he believed that this individual's name should be spelled MURPHY; [redacted] and that he is presently very violently anti-Jewish and [redacted] thought he should be checked.

Relative to the [redacted] mentioned in Mr. [redacted] letter to the Bureau, it is to be noted that he could furnish no other specific information and merely expounded on information already

Ogunquit Maine is only ten miles north of the Portsmouth N H Navy Yard.

In the April 14th issue of "Time" on page 8 there is a letter written by G. Andrew Moriarty who is well known as a Nazi.
For ten years or more he lived in a rented cottage there and suddenly two years ago inherited money and built a secluded home (with a very high antenna) where he is still allowed to carry on his filthy work.
(He has 4 dogs).

It has been understood in the town that the FBI knows about him - well for God's sake why don't they do something!?!
b7C

One of his Nazi pals is [redacted] a slimy crooked Italian who has had the art exhibit there for about fifteen years - and up to last year ran open forums where Moriarty did a lot of yapping.

That town is too near Portsmouth N H and Portland Maine to allow the distinct Nazi atmosphere that prevails there to continue.

If you think this important enough to refer to the proper Americans - the local all year round barber is a swell source of information. Just a simple, talkative fellow who seems to know everything.

There is [redacted] named [redacted] who would bear a little investigation. Also what about [redacted]

It's beyond me how ? Americans ? will do anything for $ while poor innocent aliens are called on the carpet.

Too bad there aren't more Americans like our President and you and

MEMORANDUM FOR FILE

August 20, 1941

RE: GEORGE MORIORITY

[redacted] was contacted regarding another subject, and offered information about one GEORGE MORIORITY, who has been investigated by the Boston Field Division.

[redacted] stated that MORIORITY goes to Boston a great deal, and is a member of the America First Committee, and also contacts old Irish groups; and, that there is also [redacted] who is also connected with MORIORITY. [redacted] has been known to state that "we are going to start a revolution". It was [redacted] belief that this was an organization thought, and not something singled out.

[redacted] asked by MORIORITY to attend German Bund meetings in New York. [redacted] half ago [redacted] observed that Subject is always off every week to someplace.

[redacted] stated that MORIORITY holds no liking for the [redacted] family, another group under investigation in the Boston Field Office. He believes them to be extreme pacifists, while MORIORITY is strongly against Communism and the Jews.

[redacted] stated that MORIORITY comes from Britol, Rhode Island and was United States Ambassador at one time. He is either Adjutant or Commander of the Ogonquit Post of the American Legion. It was [redacted] belief that MORIORITY family originally came from around Newport, and that MORIORITY'S mother resides there. Subject has a sister [redacted]

[redacted] The money is supposed to originate from Subject's mother's estate.

MORIORITY is a Harvard Law Graduate at speaks at meetings in Vayana Nuncio Forum Group. These meetings include all types of speakers. [redacted] stated that Subject is a famous and most convincing speaker, and that he tends to favor Nazism and he is extremetly against the British; that he lives with his wife in Ogonquit, has very few callers.

Re: GEORGE MORIARITY
INTERNAL SECURITY - G

Dear Sir:

advised Agent [redacted]

[redacted] She stated that there is a man by the name of GEORGE MORIARITY, who has lived there for a number of years, who is reported to be an open Nazi sympathizer over a period of many years. [redacted] stated that he has long had the reputation in that community of supporting the Nazis and that it has been a matter of much public comment. She stated also that it is rumored that he said at a cocktail party at one time that he was in Hitler's pay. She says that he has no visible means of support except possible wealth. He is an antiquarian by occupation. He is a suave individual and a man of very worldly type. She said that he has been violently anti-Semitic for many years. He occupies a home 17 miles from Portsmouth Navy Yard.

b7D

The events which led to [redacted] coming into the office was the fact that she read in [redacted] newspaper that he had been recently appointed to the State Committee in charge of observation posts and she felt that it was very dangerous to have a man of his inclinations in such an important post, especially so close to the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Agent [redacted] advised that [redacted] impressed him as being a woman of a great deal of intelligence and common sense and that a great deal of weight should be given to her report from that viewpoint.

MEMORANDUM TO: [REDACTED]

FROM: [REDACTED]

b7C

[REDACTED] called this morning to report the following:

[REDACTED] and approximately two years ago, George Moriarty moved to Ogunquit from Connecticut. [REDACTED] has met Mr. Moriarty and talked with him, and is inclined to believe the reports which she has heard, but specifically states that in general her report is hearsay.

She states:—

It is said:

That Mr. Moriarty openly boasted of being a Nazi two years ago.

b7C

b7D

That he never mails anything from Ogunquit. (goes outside to mail letters).

That Pelley visited him two years ago.

That F.B.I. investigated him two years ago and found him a "harmless windbag."

[REDACTED] knows that he is violently Anti-Semitic, and asks that the word "violently" be underlined several times; she also would like it stated that she is not a Semite but that she believes that Anti-Semitism is a dangerous poison in these days.

Mr. Moriarty built a home in Ogunquit, "got in with the natives" it is said, through free spending. He is said to still talk violently against the Government, although taking care to "wrap himself in the flag." He is now Commander of the local Legion Post and [REDACTED] has heard, is high up in the warden service. She says there are tales of strange lights along the coast, but there is no evidence that these are connected with him.

The townspeople—summer residents, primarily, as opposed to natives—are disturbed about the situation, and there was a movement to communicate with Walter Winchell and inform him of the foregoing:

She was certainly not in any way vindictive and, in my opinion, has the simple desire to do her duty as a citizen. She pointed out that if he were not in a position to do harm she would not have reported him, and agrees that he may well be a "harmless windbag", but wishes the responsibility of deciding this to be removed from her shoulders and that of the townspeople.

connection with counter-espionage work in the Army. Mr. G. ANDREWS MORIARTY, JR., of Boston, Massachusetts was recommended for the position. The recommendation states that he was an American citizen, born in Newport, Rhode Island, February 12, 1883, a graduate of the Harvard College and Harvard Law School, who had studied at Oxford University. Subject had been consular agent and deputy consular at Fiume, Austria, Hungary, and second secretary of the Embassy at Mexico City. He had been secretary of the American Legation at Guatemala. The recommendation states further that since 1911 subject had practiced law at Providence, Rhode Island and Boston, Massachusetts. He had worked as a volunteer investigator for the Department of Justice and for the G2 Intelligence Officer at Boston, Massachusetts.

It is stated that subject had a thorough knowledge of French, German, Italian and Spanish. A memorandum for the Adjutant General, dated March 23, 1918 by the Chief of Staff informed that if physically qualified subject should be appointed as captain, for intelligence duty only, therefore, subject was given appointment as captain, National Army, with rank to April 4, 1918. He accepted the appointment on the same date and took oath of office at Washington, D. C. on April 5, 1918.

Subject's file contains a letter dated November 4, 1918 at Washington, D. C. from Major General GUILLIEMOTTI, Italian Military Attache at Washington, D. C. This individual wrote to the Chief of the Military Intelligence Division regarding the help given Liaison Officers of the Italian Alpini, Bersaglieri and Grenadier Troops on a long and tiresome tour that took them through the United States by subject and three other officers.

Subject filed application for separation from the service February 15, 1919 giving his address as Ridgeway, Newport, Rhode Island. This application shows his last employer as Hale and Dow, attorneys at law, 16th Central Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

Subject was honorably discharged from the service February 15, 1919 under the name of GEORGE ANDREW MORIARTY, JR. Various records in subject's service file show that he was born at Newport, Rhode Island February 12, 1883. His address as of April 15, 1919 was 416 Marbow Street, Boston, Massachusetts. The name of his mother was given as Mrs. G. A. MORIARTY. It was shown that subject had five years practice at law before entering the Army, that he was a member of the Rhode Island and Massachusetts Bars and had been vice president of Italian War Relief. Subject had been employed by Edwards and Angell of Providence, Rhode Island and by Hale Grinnell and Swain, address 16 Central Street, Boston, Massachusetts. The file reflects that subject was regarded as proficient in diplomacy, that he had been a member of the Rhode Island, Virginia, South Carolina Historical Society; a member of the Essex Institute; the New England Genealogical Society; the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society and the Suffolk (England) Archeological and Natural History Society. He was also a member of the Sons of the American Revolution and the Mayflower Descendants.

Subject held degree of AB, AM and LLB from Harvard University.

Subject's father was born in Brooklyn, New York and his mother was born at Tiberton, Rhode Island. The only previous military experience subject had was the attendance at the Business Men's Training Camp, Plattsburg, New York from August 5, 1915 to September 10, 1915.

Subject applied for Adjusted Service Compensation on July 15, 1939 giving his address as Shore Road, Ogunquit, Maine. The name of his wife is given as Mrs. LOUISE DITTEMORE MORIARTY. Witnesses to this application were [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] No compensation was awarded subject because he was not entitled to compensation since all of his service was home service, not with troops and while receiving commutation of quarters. No further information regarding subject appears in the War Department files. b7C

[redacted] MORIARTY goes to Boston a great deal and is a member of the America First Committee, and also contacts old Irish groups; and that there is also one [redacted] who is also connected with MORIARTY. [redacted] has been known to state that 'we are going to start a revolution'. It was [redacted] belief that this was an organization thought and not something singled out.

[redacted] asked by MORIARTY to attend German Bund meetings in New York. [redacted]

[redacted] observed that Subject is always off every week to some place.

[redacted] stated that MORIARTY holds no liking for the [redacted] family, another group under investigation in the Boston Field Office. He believes them to be extreme pacifists while MORIARTY is strongly against Communism and the Jews.

[redacted] stated that MORIARTY comes from Bristol, Rhode Island and was United States Ambassador at one time. He is either Adjutant or Commander of the Ogunquit Post of the American Legion. It was [redacted] belief that Moriarty's family originally came from around Newport and that his mother resides there. Subject has a sister, [redacted]. The money is supposed to originate from Subject's mother's estate.

b7D

MORIARTY is a Harvard Law Graduate and speaks at meetings in Vayana Munio Forum Group. These meetings include all types of speakers. [redacted] stated that Subject is a very dangerous and most convincing speaker and that he tends to favor Nazism and he is extremely against the British; that he lives with his wife in Ogunquit, has very few callers.

[redacted] stated that GEORGE MORIARTY of Ogunquit, Maine was active in the Christian Front; that he was a graduate of Oxford and had been Captain in the Intelligence Unit during the last war.⁶

Under date of August 29, 1943, a letter was received from the Philadelphia Field Division, which is quoted as follows:

[redacted] advised Agent [redacted]

[redacted] She stated that there is a man by the name of GEORGE MORIARTY, who has lived there for a number of years, who is reported to be an open Nazi sympathizer over a period of many years. [redacted] stated that he has long had the reputation in that community of supporting the Nazis and that it has been a matter of much public comment. She stated also that it is rumored that he said at a cocktail party at one time that he was in Hitler's pay. She says that he has no visible means of support except possible wealth. He is an antiquarian by occupation. He is a suave individual and a man of very worldly type. She said that he has been violently anti-Semitic for many years. He occupies a home 17 miles from Portsmouth Navy Yard.

The events which led to [redacted] coming into the office was the fact that she read in a local Ogunquit newspaper that he had been recently appointed to the State Committee in charge of observation posts and she felt that it was very dangerous to have a man of his inclinations in such an important post, especially so close to the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Agent [redacted] advised that [redacted] impressed him as being a woman of a great deal of intelligence and common sense and that a great deal of weight should be given to her report from that viewpoint."

Under date of May 27, 1942, a letter was received from [redacted] First Civilian Defense Area, Office of Civilian Defense, 17 Court Street, Boston, Mass., with which [redacted] was enclosed the following memorandum from [redacted]

[redacted] called this morning to report the following:

[redacted] and approximately two years ago, GEORGE MORIARTY moved to Ogunquit from Connecticut. [redacted] has met Mr. MORIARTY and talked with him, and is inclined to believe the reports which she has heard, but specifically states that in general her report is hearsay.

She states: -- It is said:

That Mr. MORIARTY openly boasted of being a Nazi two years ago.

That he never mails anything from Ogunquit. (Goes outside to mail letters.)

That PELLEY visited him two years ago.

That F.B.I. investigated him two years ago and found him a 'harmless windbag'.

[redacted] knows that he is violently anti-Semitic, and asks that the word 'violently' be underlined several times; she also would like it stated that she is not a Semite but that she believes that anti-Semitism is a dangerous poison in these days.

Mr. MORIARTY built a home in Ogunquit, 'got in with the natives' it is said, through free spending. He is said to still talk violently against the Government, although taking care to 'wrap himself in the flag'. He is now Commander of the local Legion Post and [redacted] has heard, is high up in the warden service. She says there are tales of strange lights along the coast, but there is no evidence that these are connected with him.

[redacted]

She was certainly not in any way vindictive and, in my opinion, has the simple desire to do her duty as a citizen. She pointed out that if he were not in a position to do harm she would not have reported him, and agrees that he may well be a 'harmless windbag', but wishes the responsibility of deciding this to be removed from her shoulders and that of the townspeople.

I told [redacted] that her name would be used only in making the report, and that I was sure in such cases that the investigating agency would protect her name in the town."

Under date of May 28, 1942, a letter was addressed to [redacted] requesting an investigation of the Subject.

A report was subsequently received from [redacted] which is quoted as follows:

[REDACTED]

In the case entitled [REDACTED] with alias, et al., INTERNAL SECURITY - C, REGISTRATION ACT, SEDITION, it was learned from a confidential informant in that case that on [REDACTED] GEORGE MORIARTY of York, Maine contacted [REDACTED] and wanted to know if [REDACTED] had been in touch with [REDACTED] answered in the negative. As far as the Washington trip was concerned [REDACTED] told MORIARTY that the owners were on his side, and that the Grand Jury had received no information of value from him or from [REDACTED] Arrangements were made for MORIARTY and [REDACTED] to meet in Boston on the following Thursday. They discussed at quite some length the charges against Senator WALSH and it was their opinion that the charges were instigated by a group of Jews who wanted to destroy WALSH's reputation.

From the same confidential informant it was further learned that on [REDACTED] GEORGE MORIARTY and [REDACTED] discussed the possibility of obtaining a trunkful of books and pictures at some unknown place on the following Sunday.

b7C

From the same confidential informant it was learned that [redacted] made arrangements with GEORGE MORIARTY to meet him at 6:00 P.M. on Huntington Avenue, Boston. MORIARTY made inquiry concerning a copy of a paper that one [redacted] had been publishing and said that he had been circulating some of them and would supply [redacted] with some copies.

and educated that local people do not understand him. Subject has never uttered any statement which [redacted] knows of favoring the Nazi Government, nor has he made any statement opposing the type of government existing in the U.S. or Britain. [redacted] stated that he has no knowledge of who visits the Subject nor has he any knowledge of what organizations the Subject may belong to.

On April 8, 1945 the writer interviewed [redacted]

He stated to the writer that the Subject is very Anti-Semitic, but that he doubted very much that the Subject's sympathies were with the German Government. [redacted] further stated that he had never heard subject express any sympathy for the German government nor has he observed any suspicious actions on his part. He stated that he knew the Subject was interested in the Christian Front organization through [redacted] but he had no knowledge that the Subject belonged to that organization or his exact connection with [redacted] advised that the Subject is a genealogical expert and a student of political history. He advised that the subject has an income from an estate which he inherited from some relatives in Bristol, Rhode Island. He further stated that in his opinion the Subject was not a dangerous person, but that he was just outspoken against the Jews and some of the political moves of the administration.

b7D

[redacted] has heard the subject state that the former government existing in this country is the only correct form of government, but that he disagreed with many of the political moves of the present administration especially with regard to the managing of the finances of the government. He has never heard the subject advocate any violation against this government nor express any sympathies for any foreign power. He stated that he thought the subject was president or vice president of the New England Genealogical Society of Boston who did considerable writing on the subject of genealogy and made very frequent trips giving lectures on the subject. [redacted] stated that he had no other information as to the organizations which the subject might belong to nor his connection with [redacted] He advised that [redacted]

[redacted] and there are no suspicious articles in the house. He advised that there is only an ordinary radio to his knowledge and doubted very much if Subject has any sending set. [redacted]

[redacted] On the same date [redacted] Postmaster at Ugonquit, was interviewed concerning Subject. He advised that he believes Subject to be loyal to this country, but that he was violently opposed to the Jewish race and prior to the war assumed an isolationist stand. He described Subject as a well informed, intelligent person who has held responsible positions with the government and also was with the Intelligence Service during the last war.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he knows nothing about the Subject's membership in the America First Committee or the Christian Front organization, but he advised the writer that he had seen literature going through the Subject's mail box which came from various organizations advocating an isolationist stand prior to the war. [redacted] stated that since the war Subject's mail has dropped off considerably and since then he has quieted down a great deal. He knows of no disloyal or subversive activities in which Subject might be engaged. He stated that the people in Ugonquit were suspicious of Subject because he was a fluent speaker and entertained a great many people in his home.

On the same date [redacted] was also contacted with reference to the Subject. He said that he was well acquainted with the subject [redacted] ✓ [redacted] He stated that the Subject had no use for "Reds", Jews or Roosevelt. He believes that the Jewish people are trying to control the financial world. In all of his conversation and contacts with the Subject [redacted] advised that he has never heard any disloyal statements made by him, nor does he believe that he is disloyal. It is his belief that the Subject thinks that America comes first above all other countries. [redacted] stated that he has been particularly alert during conversations with the Subject to see if he would make any such statements. He advised further that if the Subject has made any statements at any time favoring the Hitler regime it was because of his hatred of the Jewish race. [redacted] described the Subject as a fanatic in this respect.

b7D

[redacted] stated that the Subject did considerable talking [redacted] against the policies of the administration and against the Jewish people, but since the war has been very quiet. He stated the Subject distributed pamphlets and magazines he received from Rev. Fr. Coughlin and other religious and pacifistic groups. He advised that the Subject does a great deal of lecturing on the subject of genealogy and also writes a great deal on the subject. He advised that the subject makes regular trips delivering these lectures. He further stated that he has seen some of the writings of the subject and none of them have been subversive or disloyal to this country.

On the same date, April 8, 1943 [redacted]

[redacted] was interviewed concerning the activities of the subject. He stated that the subject is at present a member of the American Legion Post and has been a past commander. He stated that he believed the subject was entirely loyal to this country having come from an old line of Americans. He stated that the Subject has taken part in the Civilian Defense Observation Post program, has put up his car for the duration and as far as he knows abides by all of the regulations which any loyal American citizen is supposed to abide by under present conditions. He said that the only thing he has heard Subject talk against was the Jewish people and some of the political moves of the administration. He understands that the Subject has had some trouble with some Jewish people and that is why he was so opposed to them at the present time.

[redacted] stated that he does not know of any connection which the Subject has with any disloyal organizations although he stated he does know [redacted] In his opinion he thought that people of the community could not understand subject and were perhaps irritated by his constant talk against the Jewish race and some of his views on Isolationism. It is his belief that since the war the Subject has been perfectly loyal and he knows of his own knowledge that the subject has quieted down considerably.

On March 9, 1943 all the information contained in the file up to this date was turned over to the First Service Command for their consideration as to the excluding of subject from this area.

[redacted] upon interview stated that the Subject was known to him casually through contacts [redacted]. He informed that the Subject never mingled with the ordinary people at Ogunquit and confined his activities to house socials conducted by various members of the artists' colony. He advised, however, that the Subject, prior to the war, had been so argumentative concerning the Jews and the feasibility of the United States entering the war that many of his former associates in the town were presently avoiding him due to the fact that an argument was invariably started by the Subject concerning the place of the Jews and their attitude.

[redacted] continued with the information that the Subject's wife, who is known as "The Countess", was believed by him [redacted] to either have been married to a nobleman prior to her marriage to MORIARTY or to have obtained the title through her family. He informed that she has a son by a prior marriage who presently resides with the Subject and his wife.

[redacted] stated that the Subject has never approached him for donations of any kind and that he was unaware of his having any connections with organizations.

[redacted] added that one [redacted] presently residing at [redacted] would be able to supply definite information about the Subject's attitude, he being one of the individuals who chose to avoid the Subject rather than be thrown into debate with him. MEMORANDUM FOR THE FILE

RE: GEORGE ANDREW MORIARTY
SECURITY MATTER G

A review of the class books and class reports at Harvard University failed to reflect any information to supplement that already set forth in reports in this investigation.

The third report of the class of 1906 dated June, 1916, stated that Moriarty immediately on leaving Harvard proceeded to Italy and the following Autumn enrolled as a Commoner of Christ Church at Oxford University, taking the Honour School in History as his subject. He received his LLB in 1916 from Harvard University Law School.

The card index of Widener Memorial Library at Harvard was checked against Subject's name and reflected that Moriarty has published fourteen tracts on genealogy or history. Four of these books or articles were reviewed by the writer, it being noted that they were concerned totally with genealogical items and family trees.

the following educational qualifications: Graduated from Harvard, AB degree, 1905; graduated from Harvard, AM degree, 1907; attended Christ College, Oxford, England, 1907 to 1907; graduated from Harvard, LL. B. degree, 1916; attended summer sessions Columbia University Law School, July, 1916, to August, 1916.

The application indicated that subject was employed by the United States Consular Service and Diplomatic Service from 1907 to 1911. He practiced law with the firm of Edwards and Angell, Providence, Rhode Island, from August, 1916, to 1917. The records of the Clerk of the Supreme Court also indicated that subject was admitted on March 30, 1917, and that he had been vouched for at the time of his admission by [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] was interviewed by reporting agent. [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] described subject as a very well educated but somewhat radical young man. He said he had a flair for oratory, and even while dictating, he would deliver his dictation in a very dramatic fashion as if he were delivering an impassioned oration. [redacted] advised that he had not seen subject since 1917 until one evening in August, 1943, on which occasion he ran into him at the home of [redacted]

On that occasion, subject entered into a very bitter discussion regarding the Jews, and he made many very bitter statements regarding the Jews and regarding the control which the Jews were presently exercising over the United States and its present government. [redacted] advised that his talk on this occasion was practically that of a demented man. He advised that "MORIARTY is absolutely nuts on the Jewish question."

He advised that MORIARTY attributes all the country's present ills to the Jews and blames the entire war on to the Jews. [redacted] stated that this conversation did not last too long inasmuch as he refused to enter into the argument and turned the subject to other matters. [redacted] was unable to furnish any other information regarding the subject.

[redacted]
[redacted] advised that he has been acquainted with subject for about [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] On these occasions, they always discuss historical and genealogical matters inasmuch as [redacted] absolutely refuses to let subject get off on the Jewish question. Subject is extremely anti-Semitic and very bitter about the Jews. He blames all of the United States difficulties as well as the present war on the Jewish race. [redacted] advised that subject is a very well known authority on historical and genealogical matters, and that he has written very exclusively for the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, a publication of the New England Historical and Genealogical Society.

[redacted]
[redacted] According to [redacted] subject is considered in England as a very outstanding authority on genealogical matters. He writes extensively for English publications on historical and genealogical matters, and also writes for many other American publications. [redacted] advised that subject sticks very closely to his subject and is a very good student of these subjects. He has never been known to wander off the subject and his writings stick strictly to historical and genealogical matters. [redacted] has never known subject to do writing of any other type. [redacted] has never heard subject discuss any organizations or groups with which he works in this country other than the historical and genealogical organizations, and [redacted] advised that he does not see how subject could be engaged in very many activities other than his historical writings inasmuch as he turns out a tremendous volume of this work.

b7C
b7D

[redacted]
[redacted] was interviewed by reporting agent. He advised that he resides in [redacted] and that he had been acquainted with subject for some years. According to [redacted] subject purchased a house of outstanding historical value at Bristol about ten years ago. This house was built around 1890, and subject purchased the house because of its historical value. MORIARTY lived in Bristol after purchasing this house for about five years. In about 1927, he sold the house and moved to Ugunquit, Maine. While there, [redacted] saw him from time to time, and advised he visited him; and on many of these occasions, subject was very bitter in his denunciation of the Jews. [redacted] described subject as being "practically a crazy man when it came to discussing the Jewish problem." [redacted] felt that subject's aversion on this point, and that his abuse was so strong, that it was difficult for him to discuss this matter intelligently. In 1936, MORIARTY ran for Rhode Island State Senator from the district of Bristol on the Republican ticket. During this campaign, he was extremely bitter in his denunciation of Roosevelt. [] felt that even though subject's opponent was a very weak candidate, MORIARTY lost the election because of his bitter denunciation of Roosevelt, and because of his strong anti-Semitic talk. [] felt that this election defeat was a very serious disappointment to subject, and was the reason for him leaving Bristol and moving to Maine. [] has not had occasion to see subject in the past three or four years. He was not aware of subject being engaged in any activity for any organized group and advised that he did not recall subject having made any speeches or did any writing other than historical work.

About three years ago, [] saw an article in the "New York Times" which gave the account of a meeting in New York City of the gathering which was an open forum for the discussion of international problems. [] could not recall the name of the meeting or the name of the group sponsoring it, but advised it was a group which had met locally for an open forum discussion during this period. [] recalled the article because it stated that after certain individuals had spoken, "a bug-eyed lawyer from Bristol, Rhode Island, named GEORGE MORIARTY, then arose and harangued the group."

[] advised that he did not know the subject of the article, but he was merely struck with the humorous statement regarding MORIARTY. [] was unable to recall anything regarding this article and stated the only reason he remember it at all was because of the reference to MORIARTY.

An examination of the files of the Providence Field Office revealed a reference to subject in an investigation of [] This investigation was conducted under the character Internal Security - Sedition. The file on [] reveals that [] was very active in the Christian Front Organization in Woonsocket, Rhode Island area. On Tuesday, April 22, 1941, the "Woonsocket Call" newspaper carried the following advertisement:

"AMERICAN CITIZENS ONLY

Wednesday, April 23, 1941.

A public meeting will be held in Joyland ballroom in Woonsocket.

[redacted] It was [redacted] opinion that the main purpose of the Subject's visit to him was to solicit money in [redacted] behalf. First statements were made by the Subject to [redacted] regarding the impeachment of ROOSEVELT, and he felt that [redacted] would be interested in ROOSEVELT'S impeachment because of the fact that [redacted] had long been along with the Republican Party. MORIARTY had sent Mr. [redacted] numerous newspaper clippings which he furnished to the writer for whatever disposition was desired.

A review of the material furnished by [redacted] reveals that numerous miscellaneous newspaper clippings of various commentators and editorials anti New Deal in tenor were sent [redacted] Also mimeographed 1/19/44 [redacted] which is violently anti New Deal and which requested money for his defence

b7D

[redacted] was also included in the material. Two bulletins put out by [redacted] [redacted] was sent [redacted] by the Subject. These were very violently anti New Deal and were soliciting money in behalf of [redacted]

[redacted] stated that he was not interested in the ideas of the Subject but that he would continue to forward to this Bureau any future communication which he received from the Subject, but that he personally would not get in contact with the Subject.

Other items which were furnished by Mr. MORIARTY to [redacted] but which were returned at the Subject's request to him included, "And So They Indicted Me," by J. E. JONES, "The Passing Caravan," "Undercover Covers Up," and various other anti New Deal writings.

No assistance was given Mr. MORIARTY by [redacted] and he stated he did not intend to make any contribution to him or to the cause of [redacted]

b7C

[redacted]

[redacted] stated that some time during September 1943 when [redacted]

Subject had come [redacted] made the statement that, "The WACS and WAVES service the officers." [redacted] stated that he did not like this statement and called MURKIN on it and MURKIN had denied that he had made such a statement. However, [redacted] said that the statement was made in his presence and it had annoyed him a great deal.

b7C
b7D

Subject, on many occasions, has made violently anti-Semitic remarks to [redacted] and tried to interest him in reading various pamphlets, but [redacted] stated that he would have nothing to do with the Subject or his ideas.

[redacted]

A check of the files of the Portland Press Herald and the Portland Evening Express reveals no articles dealing with the activities of the Subject of this case.

[redacted] stated that he was not very well acquainted with the Subject, having met him while [redacted] He stated that he knows nothing of a derogatory nature concerning the Subject other than the fact that the Subject appeared to be violently anti-Semitic. He suggested that [redacted] might be able to furnish some information regarding the Subject.

A letter was received from the New York Field Division dated May 13, 1944, containing information regarding JOHN S. WISE, JR., referred to in reference report.

b7C

The indices of the New York Field Division show that J. S. WISE, Jr., probably refers to JOHN S. WISE, Jr., of the New York Bar Association, 43 West 44th Street, New York City, residence address, 138 West 16th Street, New York City. Mr. WISE is referred to as an anti-Semitic old man. A Book Which Tells All About Russian Conditions

Editor of the Press Herald:

For those who wish to be informed as to what really goes on inside the U.S.S.R. the new monthly bulletin "The Free Russia" is a must reading. It is published by the R.R.F. (Russian Revolutionary Forces), the anti-Communist Underground Organization which operates inside the U.S.S.R. with headquarters in a Southern European country in conjunction with the well known English anti-Communist patriot Peter J. Huxley-Blythe, 37 Wensley Ave., Fleetwood, Lancashire, England.

They report that the Russian people would rise against their oppressors if given any help and encouragement, but, in their latest issue, they report that the people, despairing of any assistance from the West, are sinking into apathy and despair. They report further that the tyrants are getting ready for an all out war of annihilation of the West, while lulling it into a false security by a show of co-operation and co-existence. They report a recent talk given by a Soviet general to the Red Army, outlining the ruthless steps by which this will be accomplished. The Russian Patriot, who heads the R.R.F., expects to be murdered at any time by Soviet agents, as they have been unable to win him over and already several attempts have been made upon his life. They also expect help from the comrades in the West.

On 10/13/52 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] furnished the writer the following information relative to captioned individual.

GEORGE ANDREWS MORIARTY, residing Post Office Box 54, Shore Road, Ogunquit, has been a wealthy, retired businessman in Ogunquit for over 20 years. He is approximately 70 years of age. He was formerly connected with U.S. Intelligence Service during World War I. He is considered by some townspeople in Ogunquit to be eccentric and dogmatic in his beliefs, in that he is violently anti-Communist and anti-Semetic to the point of publicly denouncing any persons or organizations even remotely suspected of being Communist or Semetic.

b7C
b7D

[REDACTED] stated that he has known MORIARTY and his family for over [REDACTED] and considers him to be a stable and extremely well informed person, as well as a fine type of American citizen. He added that on 10/11/52 he was requested by MORIARTY to contact an FBI Agent regarding some Communist literature which MORIARTY has been receiving from an unknown party in Portland, Maine.

The writer interviewed GEORGE A. MORIARTY on 10/15/52 at his residence in Ogunquit and was furnished the following information.

An unknown party, Portland, Maine, during the weeks of October 5 and October 12, 1952, has mailed to MORIARTY the following publications which he believes are Communist and Semetic propaganda:

1. Common Sense, Union, New Jersey, Vol. VI, No. 167, dated 8/1/52.
2. New Analyst, Vol. V, No. 5, Institute of Social Engineering, 2623 Lawrence Avenue, Chicago 25, Ill., dated September, 1952.

The March, 1959 issue of the Anti-Defamation League Bulletin contained an article by JEROME BAKST entitled "Angry Young Men of Hate." The article included the following:

"Fields, 26 years old and a Louisville chiropractor, is a key figure in the National States Rights Party and co-ordinator

"of all its activities, contacts, and liaison with leaders of other hate groups. He apparently started Jew-baiting in his teens, aided Stoner in the Christian Anti-Jewish Party, and got involved in newspaper notoriety while attending chirepractory school in Davenport, Iowa. There, early in 1954, according to newspaper reports, he pasted anti-Jewish stickers on store windows during Brotherhood Week."

"Jesse B. Stoner, another of the hate group leaders, is 36 years old. He got started in the 1940's when he was a Klan organizer in Tennessee. He was Fuehrer of his own organizations variously called the Stoner Anti-Jewish Party and the Christian Anti-Jewish Party. Associated with him in this last enterprise, active in the early 1950's, were Edward Fields, who was 'Secretary,' and the Bowling brothers of Atlanta, Richard and Robert, whose names have been published in Atlanta Temple Bombing News Reports."

"The Thunderbolt" is self-described as the official organ of the NSRP.

The "Klan Bulletin" is self-described as a publication of the CKKKK.

[redacted] advised the NSRP is composed of past members of the Ku Klux Klan and notorious anti-Semites.

[redacted] advised the CKKKK was organized in Louisville, Kentucky in June, 1959, by [redacted] that the membership application of the CKKKK reflected the organization to be composed of "loyal White people: men and women, Protestants and Catholics, native and foreign born Americans," and that the organization would work for "legal segregation everywhere in America and Federal aid to all Negroes who wish to return to Africa."

Dear Mr. Laughlin:

Two gentlemen from your Portland Me. office came in yesterday to see me about the report I recently sent you and wanted the address of the party it came to me from. I could ^{not} lay my hand on it for the moment but I have now found it. I do not have their names or the exact address in Portland, so I will send it, herewith, to you. It is, of course, for reasons of safety, very confidential, but should ^{you} wish to contact them, I am sure you will find this party a very valuable contact:
